Customers should review the applicable price before confirming an order.

The final order amount may include:

- Product price

- Quantity

- Discounts

- Delivery fees

- Other applicable charges

The final amount presented during checkout should be reviewed before payment.

==========

10. ORDER PLACEMENT

==========

Customers should review their cart and order information before confirming a purchase.

Important information may include:

- Product

- Quantity

- Variant

- Price

- Delivery address

- Delivery method

- Payment method

- Discount

- Delivery charge

- Final total

==========

11. ORDER CONFIRMATION

==========

After placing an order, customers should retain the applicable order reference or confirmation where available.

Order confirmation helps customers with:

- Order tracking
- Customer support
- Delivery inquiries
- Returns
- Refunds
- Exchanges
- Complaints

==========

12. ORDER STATUS

==========

Order status may include stages such as:

- Pending
- Confirmed
- Processing
- Packed
- Shipped
- Out for delivery
- Delivered
- Cancelled
- Returned
- Completed

The exact status depends on the customer's specific order.

==========

13. ORDER CANCELLATION

==========

Customers may request cancellation where applicable.

Cancellation depends on factors such as:

- Order status

- Payment status

- Fulfillment stage

- Shipment status

- Product type

- Seller

- Applicable cancellation conditions

Once an order has progressed to certain fulfillment or shipment stages, direct cancellation may no longer be available.

==========

14. ORDER MODIFICATION

==========

Customers should request order changes as early as possible.

Possible changes may include:

- Product

- Quantity

- Variant

- Delivery address

- Contact information

- Delivery method

Whether a change is possible depends on the order's current status.

==========

15. ORDER NOT FOUND

==========

If a customer believes an order was successfully placed but cannot find it, support may need to review:

- Customer account
- Order reference
- Payment information
- Transaction information
- Order confirmation
- Relevant order status

Customers should provide relevant references where available.

==========

16. PAID BUT ORDER NOT CONFIRMED

==========

If payment appears to have been deducted but the order is not confirmed, the customer should contact support.

The issue may require review of:

- Transaction status
- Payment reference
- Order information
- Payment provider status

Customers should not send:

- Passwords
- OTPs
- Authentication codes

- CVV

- Full payment card numbers

==========

17. DELIVERY OVERVIEW

==========

General delivery options may include:

- Standard Delivery: generally 3–7 business days

- Express Delivery: generally 1–3 business days

- Same-Day Delivery: selected products and eligible locations, subject to the applicable checkout cutoff

Delivery availability and timing may vary depending on:

- Location

- Product

- Seller

- Order time

- Delivery method

- Operational conditions

- Public holidays

- Road conditions

- Weather

==========

18. BUSINESS DAYS

==========

Delivery estimates are generally expressed in business days.

Business days generally refer to Monday through Friday.

Weekends and public holidays may not count as business days depending on the applicable delivery arrangement.

==========

19. DELIVERY FEES

==========

Delivery fees may vary according to:

- Location

- Product

- Delivery method

- Seller

- Order

- Applicable promotion

The applicable delivery charge should be displayed during the purchasing process.

Free delivery may be offered as part of a promotion.

==========

20. DELIVERY ADDRESS

==========

Customers should provide accurate delivery information.

Useful information may include:

- City
- Sub-city
- Woreda
- Kebele
- Neighborhood
- Street
- House number
- Building
- Apartment or unit
- Landmark
- Phone number

- Additional directions

==========

21. DELIVERY ADDRESS CHANGES

==========

Customers should request address changes as soon as possible.

An address change may not be possible once an order has progressed to certain fulfillment or delivery stages.

Customers should contact support promptly if an incorrect address was entered.

==========

22. DELIVERY DELAYS

==========

Delivery delays may result from:

- Traffic
- Weather
- Road conditions
- Public holidays
- Incorrect address information
- Customer unavailability
- Seller fulfillment delays
- Product availability
- Operational circumstances

Customers should check their current order information when asking about a specific delivery.

==========

23. DELIVERY TRACKING

==========

Where tracking is available, customers may use the applicable order or tracking information to monitor delivery progress.

Tracking information may sometimes take time to update.

A temporary lack of tracking updates does not necessarily mean that the shipment has stopped.

==========

24. DELIVERED BUT NOT RECEIVED

==========

If an order is marked as delivered but the customer has not received it, the customer should contact support promptly.

The issue may require review of:

- Order details

- Delivery address

- Delivery status

- Recipient information

- Relevant delivery records

==========

25. FAILED DELIVERY

==========

A delivery may fail because of:

- Incorrect address
- Incomplete address
- Customer unavailable
- Customer unreachable
- Location accessibility
- Delivery restrictions
- Other operational circumstances

Depending on the situation, delivery may be:

- Reattempted

- Rescheduled

- Redirected where applicable

- Handled through another applicable process

==========

26. RETURNS

==========

Returns are subject to the applicable return policy.

Common reasons for returns may include:

- Defective product

- Damaged product

- Wrong product

- Missing components

- Product not matching the applicable description

- Other qualifying reasons

Return eligibility depends on the product and applicable conditions.

==========

27. CHANGE-OF-MIND RETURNS

==========

Change-of-mind returns may be available for some products.

However, restrictions may apply to products because of:

- Hygiene considerations
- Perishable nature
- Customization
- Sealed packaging
- Product condition
- Other applicable restrictions

==========

28. RETURN CONDITION

==========

A product may need to meet applicable return-condition requirements.

Depending on the product, this may include:

- Appropriate product condition
- Original packaging
- Accessories
- Tags
- Documentation
- Other included components

Specific requirements depend on the applicable return policy.

==========

29. REFUNDS

==========

A customer may qualify for a refund when an order or product meets the applicable refund conditions.

Refund amounts may depend on:

- Amount paid
- Returned products
- Discounts
- Delivery charges
- Partial returns
- Promotion terms
- Seller conditions

==========

30. REFUND TIMING

==========

Refund timing may depend on:

- Refund approval
- Refund processing
- Payment method
- Payment provider
- Bank or financial institution
- Transaction processing

Customers should allow the applicable processing time before reporting that a refund has not arrived.

==========

31. EXCHANGES AND REPLACEMENTS

==========

Where available, customers may request:

- Exchange
- Replacement
- Repair
- Refund

Availability depends on:

- Product

- Seller

- Stock

- Product condition

- Reason for the request

- Applicable policy

==========

32. WARRANTY

==========

Some products may include a seller or manufacturer warranty.

Warranty conditions may differ from return conditions.

Customers should review the specific product warranty information where available.

==========

33. PAYMENT

==========

Payment methods may vary depending on:

- Customer
- Location
- Product
- Seller
- Order
- Payment service

- Other transaction conditions

Customers should use an authorized payment method and review the final order total before payment.

==========

34. PAYMENT PROBLEMS

==========

Common payment problems may include:

- Payment failure

- Pending payment

- Payment deducted but order not confirmed

- Duplicate payment

- Payment reversal

- Payment provider delay

- Network interruption

- Incorrect payment information

Customers should contact support when the transaction status is unclear.

==========

35. PAYMENT SECURITY

==========

Customers should protect payment information.

Customers should never provide through ordinary customer support communication:

- Passwords

- OTPs

- Authentication codes

- CVV

- Full payment card numbers

==========

36. PROMOTIONS

==========

Hulu Beje may offer:

- Percentage discounts

- Fixed discounts

- Coupons

- Promo codes

- Free delivery

- Bundle offers

- Quantity promotions

- Limited-time campaigns

- Seller promotions

Each promotion may have specific conditions.

==========

37. PROMOTION ELIGIBILITY

==========

A promotion may depend on:

- Minimum order value
- Product
- Category
- Seller
- Location
- Payment method
- Customer eligibility
- Promotion period
- Usage limit

Customers should review the applicable promotion conditions before completing an order.

==========

38. EXPIRED OR INVALID PROMOTIONS

==========

A promotion may fail because:

- It has expired.

- It has already been used.

- The order does not meet the minimum value.

- The products are excluded.

- The seller is excluded.

- The customer is not eligible.

- The promotion cannot be combined with another offer.

==========

39. COUPON STACKING

==========

Multiple coupons or promotions may not always be combined.

Customers should review the applicable promotion terms and confirm the final order amount before payment.

==========

40. CUSTOMER ACCOUNTS

==========

Customer accounts may contain:

- Name

- Phone number

- Email address

- Saved addresses

- Account preferences

- Order history

- Other account information

Customers should keep account information accurate and protect their credentials.

==========

41. ACCOUNT SECURITY

==========

Customers should:

- Protect passwords.

- Avoid sharing passwords.

- Avoid sharing OTPs.

- Avoid sharing authentication codes.

- Report suspicious account activity.

- Use appropriate account recovery processes.

Support should never request a customer's password.

==========

42. ACCOUNT RECOVERY

==========

If a customer cannot access an account, the customer should use the applicable account recovery process.

Support may require reasonable verification before handling account-specific requests.

Customers should never provide confidential authentication credentials.

==========

43. ACCOUNT RESTRICTIONS

==========

An account may be restricted or suspended when there is a legitimate reason, such as:

- Fraud

- Security concerns

- Repeated policy violations

- Unauthorized activity

- Abuse of services

- Other serious or repeated violations

==========

44. CUSTOMER PRIVACY

==========

Customer information should be handled responsibly.

Personal information may include:

- Name

- Phone number

- Email address

- Delivery address

- Order information

- Transaction information

- Support information

- Account information

Customer information should only be accessed or shared for legitimate purposes.

==========

45. CUSTOMER DATA DISCLOSURE

==========

Customer information should not be disclosed to unrelated people.

Examples of private information include:

- Address
- Phone number
- Order history
- Payment information
- Support conversations
- Account information
- Refund information

A customer requesting another customer's information does not create authorization to disclose it.

==========

46. SELLER PRIVACY RESPONSIBILITIES

==========

Sellers should:

- Protect customer information.

- Use customer information only for legitimate purposes.

- Avoid unnecessary disclosure.

- Avoid requesting passwords or authentication credentials.

- Report suspicious activity.

- Follow applicable privacy requirements.

==========

47. SELLER RESPONSIBILITIES

==========

Participating sellers should:

- Provide accurate product information.
- Maintain appropriate product availability.
- Fulfill accepted orders.
- Package products appropriately.
- Handle qualifying returns and replacements.
- Respect customer privacy.
- Follow seller policies.
- Avoid fraudulent activity.

==========

48. SELLER PRODUCT DISPUTES

==========

Customers may report seller-related issues such as:

- Wrong product
- Damaged product
- Defective product
- Missing product components
- Product not as described
- Authenticity concerns
- Seller communication problems

- Delivery problems

Relevant complaints should be reviewed according to the applicable seller and customer support processes.

==========

49. MULTI-SELLER ORDERS

==========

Orders containing products from multiple sellers may involve:

- Different delivery times

- Separate shipments

- Different return conditions

- Different fulfillment processes

- Different seller responsibilities

Customers should review the applicable information for each product.

==========

50. CUSTOMER COMPLAINTS

==========

Customers may complain about:

- Products

- Orders

- Delivery

- Payments

- Returns

- Refunds

- Sellers

- Promotions

- Accounts

- Privacy

- Customer service

Complaints should be handled respectfully and based on relevant information.

==========

51. COMPLAINT HANDLING PROCESS

==========

A general complaint process may include:

1. Identify the customer's concern.

2. Collect relevant information.

3. Review the applicable order or service information.

4. Determine the appropriate policy.

5. Explain the next step clearly.

6. Resolve the issue where possible.

7. Escalate when additional review is required.

8. Communicate the outcome or current status.

==========

52. CUSTOMER FRUSTRATION

==========

Customers may contact support when they are frustrated because of:

- Delayed delivery
- Failed payment
- Missing refund
- Wrong product
- Damaged product
- Cancellation problems
- Account problems
- Seller problems

Support should remain respectful and focus on resolving the customer's actual issue.

==========

53. HANDLING ANGRY CUSTOMERS

==========

When a customer is angry, support should:

- Acknowledge the concern.
- Avoid arguing.
- Avoid blaming the customer unnecessarily.
- Explain what can be done.
- Provide clear next steps.
- Escalate when appropriate.

Support should not respond with insulting or disrespectful language.

==========

54. REPEATED CUSTOMER QUESTIONS

==========

If a customer repeats a question, support should avoid unnecessarily repeating the same generic information.

Instead:

- Address the specific concern.
- Clarify what remains unresolved.
- Review the relevant information.
- Explain the next step.
- Escalate if necessary.

==========

55. ESCALATION

==========

A customer issue may require escalation when:

- The customer explicitly requests further review.
- The issue involves a privacy concern.
- The issue involves account security.
- A payment dispute cannot be resolved normally.
- A refund remains unresolved.
- A seller dispute requires additional review.
- A product safety concern is reported.
- Available information is conflicting.

- A previous resolution failed.

- The customer reports a serious business complaint.

==========

56. URGENT ISSUES

==========

Issues that may require prompt attention include:

- Suspected unauthorized account access

- Suspected unauthorized payment

- Serious privacy incident

- Safety-related product problem

- Significant delivery problem

- Fraud report

- Other urgent customer security concerns

==========

57. PRODUCT SAFETY CONCERNS

==========

Customers should promptly report products that may present serious safety concerns.

Examples include:

- Dangerous defects

- Serious damage

- Product contamination concerns

- Incorrect safety information

- Other significant product safety issues

Such complaints may require additional review.

==========

58. FRAUD AND SECURITY COMPLAINTS

==========

Customers should report suspected:

- Account takeover

- Unauthorized payment

- Fraudulent seller behavior

- Fake support requests

- Suspicious payment requests

- Fraudulent return activity

- Other suspicious activity

Customers should not provide passwords, OTPs, authentication codes, CVV, or full card numbers when reporting an incident.

==========

59. CUSTOMER COMPENSATION REQUESTS

==========

Customers may request compensation for issues such as:

- Delivery delays

- Damaged products

- Service problems

- Other customer complaints

Whether compensation is available depends on the applicable circumstances and business policy.

Support should not promise a specific compensation amount unless it has been confirmed.

==========

60. CUSTOMER-SPECIFIC INFORMATION

==========

Customer-specific information includes information such as:

- Current order status

- Current delivery status

- Current payment status

- Current refund status

- Current product availability

- Current promotion eligibility

- Account-specific information

This information should not be guessed or presented as confirmed without appropriate current information.

==========

61. UNKNOWN OR MISSING INFORMATION

==========

If an exact business detail is not known, support should not invent an answer.

Examples include:

- Exact delivery date
- Exact inventory quantity
- Exact refund amount
- Exact promotion eligibility
- Exact seller status
- Exact payment status
- Exact order status

The customer should instead be directed to the appropriate current information or support process.

==========

62. CUSTOMER COMMUNICATION

==========

Customer communication should be:

- Clear
- Direct
- Respectful
- Relevant
- Accurate
- Easy to understand

Important information should not be hidden behind unnecessary explanations.

==========

63. COMMUNICATION ABOUT DELIVERY

==========

When discussing delivery, support should distinguish between:

- General delivery estimates
- Current order status
- Current tracking information
- Delivery delays
- Customer-specific delivery problems

General delivery estimates should not be presented as a guaranteed date for an individual order.

==========

64. COMMUNICATION ABOUT REFUNDS

==========

When discussing refunds, support should distinguish between:

- Refund eligibility
- Refund approval
- Refund processing
- Payment provider processing
- Completed refund

A refund should not be described as completed unless the relevant information confirms it.

==========

65. COMMUNICATION ABOUT PAYMENTS

==========

When discussing payments, support should distinguish between:

- Payment initiated
- Payment pending
- Payment failed
- Payment successful
- Payment reversed
- Payment refunded

Customers should not be asked for sensitive payment credentials.

==========

66. COMMUNICATION ABOUT RETURNS

==========

When discussing returns, support should distinguish between:

- Return request
- Return eligibility
- Return approval
- Return pickup or drop-off
- Returned product received
- Return inspection
- Refund or replacement

A return request does not automatically mean that a refund has already been approved.

==========

67. COMMUNICATION ABOUT PRODUCTS

==========

Product information should be specific to the relevant product.

Support should avoid inventing:

- Product specifications

- Stock levels

- Warranty terms

- Compatibility

- Seller information

- Product availability

Customers should be directed to the applicable product information when exact details are required.

==========

68. COMMUNICATION ABOUT PROMOTIONS

==========

Promotion information should clearly distinguish between:

- General promotional rules

- Customer eligibility

- Coupon validity

- Promotion dates

- Product restrictions

- Seller restrictions

- Current promotion status

A general promotion should not automatically be represented as available to every customer.

==========

69. COMMUNICATION ABOUT SELLERS

==========

Seller information should be presented according to confirmed business information.

Support should not invent:

- Seller policies
- Seller locations
- Seller stock
- Seller contact information
- Seller warranty terms
- Seller performance information

==========

70. PRIVACY DURING CUSTOMER SUPPORT

==========

Support should request only information relevant to the customer's issue.

Customers should not be asked for:

- Passwords

- OTPs

- Authentication codes

- CVV

- Full card numbers

Customer information should not be disclosed to unrelated people.

==========

71. SUPPORT CASE INFORMATION

==========

A support case may contain:

- Customer issue
- Relevant order reference
- Relevant product
- Relevant transaction
- Delivery information
- Customer request
- Actions already taken
- Current status

Unnecessary personal information should not be included.

==========

72. CUSTOMER SUPPORT ESCALATION FORMAT

==========

A support escalation may be summarized using:

CUSTOMER ISSUE:

[Short description]

CATEGORY:

[Order / Delivery / Payment / Product / Return / Refund / Seller / Account / Privacy / Security / Other]

RELEVANT ORDER:

[Order reference if applicable]

RELEVANT PRODUCT:

[Product if applicable]

CUSTOMER REQUEST:

[Requested resolution]

ACTIONS ALREADY TAKEN:

[Summary]

CURRENT STATUS:

[Confirmed information only]

REASON FOR ESCALATION:

[Why additional review is needed]

DO NOT INCLUDE:

- Passwords

- OTPs

- Authentication codes

- CVV

- Full payment card numbers

==========

73. CUSTOMER SERVICE QUALITY

==========

Good customer service should:

- Answer the customer's actual question.

- Avoid unnecessary repetition.

- Use clear language.

- Explain important limitations.

- Avoid unsupported promises.

- Protect customer privacy.

- Escalate unresolved problems appropriately.

- Confirm important actions.

- Keep the customer informed about unresolved issues.

==========

74. IMPORTANT ACTION CONFIRMATION

==========

When a customer requests an important action, the action should be confirmed appropriately.

Examples include:

- Cancellation
- Address change
- Return request
- Refund request
- Account change
- Security action

Support should distinguish between:

- Request received
- Action approved
- Action completed

==========

75. FAILED ACTIONS

==========

If a requested action cannot be completed, support should explain:

- What failed
- Why it cannot be completed where known
- What alternative is available
- What the customer should do next

Support should not claim that an action was completed when it was not.

==========

76. CURRENT INFORMATION

==========

Customer-specific business information can change over time.

Examples include:

- Product availability
- Product price
- Order status
- Delivery status
- Promotion status
- Payment status

- Refund status

- Seller availability

Customers should receive current information where a question depends on changing business data.

==========

77. PRIVACY REQUESTS

==========

Customers may ask about:

- Personal data

- Data correction

- Account deletion

- Privacy complaints

- Information sharing

- Security incidents

Such requests should be handled according to the applicable Privacy and Data Protection Policy.

==========

78. ACCOUNT DELETION

==========

Where account deletion is available, customers may request it through the applicable process.

Account deletion may not immediately remove every record because certain information may need to be retained for:

- Legal requirements

- Financial records

- Security

- Fraud prevention

- Disputes

- Completed transactions

- Other legitimate business requirements

==========

79. BUSINESS RECORDS

==========

Hulu Beje may maintain records related to:

- Orders

- Payments

- Refunds

- Returns

- Customer support

- Seller activity

- Security

- Business operations

Such records should be handled appropriately and retained according to applicable requirements.

==========

80. CUSTOMER FEEDBACK

==========

Customers may provide feedback about:

- Products
- Delivery
- Payments
- Customer service
- Sellers
- Returns
- Website or service experience
- Other business activities

Feedback may be reviewed to identify areas for service improvement.

==========

81. GENERAL CUSTOMER SCENARIOS

==========

SCENARIO 1 — "WHERE IS MY ORDER?"

Customer:

"Where is my order?"

Handling:

Use the customer's current order information when available. Do not invent a delivery status or date.

SCENARIO 2 — "WHEN WILL IT ARRIVE?"

Customer:

"When will my order arrive?"

Handling:

Provide the current applicable delivery estimate or order-specific information. General delivery estimates should not be presented as guaranteed dates.

SCENARIO 3 — "MY ORDER IS LATE."

Customer:

"My order is late."

Handling:

Review the order and delivery information, explain the current status, and escalate if the delivery issue requires additional review.

SCENARIO 4 — "I WANT A REFUND."

Customer:

"I want my money back."

Handling:

Determine whether the request relates to a cancellation, return, failed payment, duplicate payment, or another situation and follow the applicable refund policy.

SCENARIO 5 — "MY PAYMENT WAS DEDUCTED."

Customer:

"The money was deducted but my order isn't showing."

Handling:

Review the transaction and order information. Do not request passwords, OTPs, CVV, or full card numbers.

SCENARIO 6 — "I RECEIVED THE WRONG PRODUCT."

Customer:

"This isn't what I ordered."

Handling:

Guide the customer through the applicable return, replacement, refund, or complaint process.

SCENARIO 7 — "THE PRODUCT ARRIVED DAMAGED."

==========

91. GENERAL BUSINESS CONSISTENCY

==========

Information given to customers should remain consistent with the applicable Hulu Beje business policies.

If a customer asks a question that depends on specific current information, the response should use the relevant current business information rather than relying only on general policy statements.

==========

92. GENERAL SUPPORT RESPONSE STRUCTURE

==========

A clear customer response should generally contain:

1. Direct answer

2. Important condition or limitation

3. Next step where necessary

4. Relevant information or policy

5. Escalation option where appropriate

Responses should avoid unnecessary complexity.

==========

93. EXAMPLE SUPPORT RESPONSES

==========

ORDER DELAY:

"Your delivery may be delayed because of factors such as traffic, weather, address issues, seller fulfillment, or operational conditions. The current order information should be checked for the specific status of your order."

RETURN REQUEST:

"Return eligibility depends on the product and the applicable return conditions. Please use the applicable return process for the order so the request can be reviewed."

PAYMENT ISSUE:

"If your payment was deducted but your order was not confirmed, the transaction and order status should be reviewed. Please do not share your password, OTP, CVV, or full card number."

DAMAGED PRODUCT:

"If your product arrived damaged, please report the issue through the applicable return or customer support process so the order can be reviewed."

PRIVACY REQUEST:

"Customer information is handled according to Hulu Beje privacy practices. If you have a specific privacy request, such as correcting or deleting information, please use the applicable privacy support process."

==========

94. CUSTOMER SUPPORT DO-NOT LIST

==========

Support should not:

- Invent order information.

- Claim a product is in stock without current information.

- Claim a promotion is active without confirmation.

- Provide unsupported legal conclusions.

==========

95. CUSTOMER SERVICE ESCALATION PRINCIPLE

==========

Escalation should not be treated as a failure of customer service.

Escalation is appropriate when additional review is needed to:

- Protect the customer.
- Protect customer privacy.
- Resolve conflicting information.
- Review a payment dispute.
- Review a serious complaint.
- Address a security issue.
- Address a product safety issue.
- Resolve a repeated unresolved problem.

==

96. CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE PRINCIPLES

==

Hulu Beje customer service should aim to provide:

- Clear communication
- Accurate information
- Appropriate privacy
- Respectful treatment
- Reasonable transparency
- Appropriate escalation
- Consistent policy application
- Useful next steps

==========

A:

Customers may browse products, place orders, make payments, receive deliveries, request eligible returns or refunds, and contact customer support.

Q3. How long does delivery take?

A:

Standard Delivery is generally 3–7 business days. Express Delivery is generally 1–3 business days. Same-Day Delivery may be available for selected products and eligible locations subject to the applicable cutoff.

Q4. Are delivery times guaranteed?

A:

General delivery estimates are not necessarily guaranteed delivery dates. Actual delivery can depend on the order, location, seller, delivery method, and operational conditions.

Q5. Can delivery be delayed?

A:

Yes. Traffic, weather, public holidays, address problems, seller delays, and other circumstances may affect delivery.

Q6. Can I change my delivery address?

A:

You should request the change as early as possible. Whether it can be changed depends on the order status.

Q7. Can I cancel an order?

A:

Cancellation may be possible depending on the order status and applicable cancellation conditions.

Q8. Can I modify an order?

A:

Some changes may be possible before the order reaches certain fulfillment stages.

Q9. What if my order cannot be found?

A:

Support can review the relevant account, order, and transaction information.

Q10. What if payment was deducted but my order was not confirmed?

A:

The payment and order status should be reviewed. Do not provide passwords, OTPs, CVV, or full card numbers.

Q11. What if I was charged twice?

A:

Contact support with the relevant transaction information for review.

Q12. Can I return a product?

A:

Return eligibility depends on the product and applicable return policy.

Q13. Can I return a product because I changed my mind?

A:

Some products may allow change-of-mind returns while others may have restrictions.

Q14. How long will my refund take?

A:

Refund timing depends on the refund process and payment method.

Q15. Can I exchange a product?

A:

Exchanges or replacements may be available depending on the product, seller, stock, and applicable policy.

Q16. What if the product is damaged?

A:

Report the issue through the applicable return, replacement, refund, or customer support process.

Q17. What if I receive the wrong product?

A:

Report the issue and follow the applicable return or replacement process.

Q18. What if part of my order is missing?

A:

Check whether the order is being delivered in multiple shipments and contact support if necessary.

Q19. Can product prices change?

A:

Yes. Customers should review the applicable current price before confirming an order.

Q20. Can products go out of stock?

A:

Yes. Availability may change depending on inventory and seller circumstances.

Q21. Are all products sold directly by Hulu Beje?

A:

Not necessarily. Some products may be supplied by participating sellers.

Q22. What are seller responsibilities?

A:

Sellers are generally responsible for accurate product information, appropriate fulfillment, product quality, and other applicable seller obligations.

Q23. Can sellers see customer information?

A:

Sellers may receive information necessary to fulfill applicable orders, subject to the relevant business arrangement.

Q24. Can I use coupons?

A:

Where available, coupons may be used according to their eligibility requirements and conditions.

Q25. Why is my coupon not working?

A:

It may be expired, already used, restricted to certain products or sellers, subject to a minimum order value, or otherwise unavailable to the order.

Q26. Can I combine promotions?

A:

Only when the applicable promotion terms allow it.

Q27. How do I protect my account?

A:

Use a strong password, do not share credentials, avoid suspicious requests, and report unusual activity.

Q28. Should I give my OTP to support?

A:

No. OTPs and authentication codes should remain confidential.

Q29. Should I give my CVV to support?

A:

No. Customers should not provide CVV through ordinary support communication.

Q30. Can support tell me another customer's address?

A:

No. Another customer's private information should not be disclosed.

Q31. Can I request correction of my personal information?

A:

Where applicable, customers may request correction of inaccurate information.

Q32. Can I delete my account?

A:

Account deletion may be available where applicable, subject to legitimate retention requirements.

Q33. What if I receive someone else's information?

A:

Report the issue promptly as a potential privacy incident.

Q34. What if my account was accessed without permission?

A:

Report the issue and follow the applicable account security and recovery process.

A:

Yes. Delivery complaints can be reported and reviewed using the relevant order information.

Q37. Can I complain about a payment?

A:

Yes. Payment problems should be reported using the relevant transaction information.

Q38. Can I request compensation?

A:

Customers may request compensation where applicable, but availability and amount depend on the circumstances and applicable policy.

Q39. What if support cannot resolve my issue?

A:

The issue may be escalated for additional review when appropriate.

Q40. What information should I provide to support?

A:

Provide relevant information such as an order reference, product information, transaction reference where applicable, and a description of the problem.

Q41. What information should I never provide?

A:

Do not provide passwords, OTPs, authentication codes, CVV, or full payment card numbers through ordinary support communication.

Q42. What if I do not know the exact answer to a product or order question?

A:

The relevant current product or order information should be checked rather than guessing.

Q43. Can customer service promise a delivery date?

A:

A general delivery estimate should not be presented as a guaranteed date unless the applicable service specifically confirms one.

Q44. Can customer service promise a refund amount?

A:

No specific refund amount should be promised unless it has been confirmed.

Q45. Can customer service promise compensation?

A:

No specific compensation should be promised unless it has been authorized and confirmed.

Q46. What if information in two policies appears different?

A:

Review the specific policy applicable to the customer's product, order, seller, payment, delivery, return, promotion, or account situation.

==========

99. FINAL CUSTOMER SERVICE STANDARD

==========

Every customer interaction should aim to provide the customer with:

- The correct information.

- The relevant policy.

- A clear explanation.

- A practical next step.

- Appropriate privacy protection.

- Appropriate security protection.

- Escalation when necessary.

Customer-specific facts should never be invented.

Confidential credentials should never be requested unnecessarily.

Another customer's private information should never be disclosed.

When an issue cannot be resolved immediately, the customer should be told clearly what has been confirmed, what remains under review, and what the next appropriate step is.

==========

100. FINAL BUSINESS POLICY STATEMENT

==========

Hulu Beje's general business and customer service approach is based on:

- Clear information
- Responsible service
- Customer privacy
- Account security
- Appropriate payment handling
- Reliable order management
- Clear delivery practices
- Fair return and refund handling
- Transparent promotion conditions
- Responsible seller participation

- Respectful customer support

- Appropriate complaint escalation

- Accurate communication

Specific business conditions may vary depending on the product, seller, order, location, payment method, promotion, and applicable circumstances.

Customers should therefore review the specific policy relevant to their situation whenever detailed conditions are required.

Where an exact business detail is not established, it should not be invented.

Where a customer-specific status is required, the current applicable order, product, payment, delivery, account, or support information should be used.

All customer and seller interactions should respect applicable privacy, security, business, and legal requirements.
